ADVISORY COUNCIL NEW MEMBER APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in becoming an Advisory Council Member. You have chosen a volunteer role that provides you with an exciting opportunity to support your local community, the Department of Seattle Parks and Recreation (SPR) and the Associated Recreation Council (ARC). Advisory councils are an integral part of the SPR and ARC partnership. You are acting as a volunteer representative of ARC and will work closely with your local SPR staff. There are currently 36 advisory councils across the system, each operating in unique ways to prioritize the voice and needs of their neighbors, program participants and residents of Seattle at-large. SPR and ARC are committed to increasing racial equity in our services to the community. Your role as an advisory council member is an important component of those efforts. Please take a moment to learn more about the City of Seattle Race and Social Justice Initiative, www.seattle.gov/rsji.

Please fully complete the attached application packet and provide a copy of your current state issued ID to. Some forms request duplicate information, it is necessary for you to provide that information for each separate form. After completing the application and returning it to Sebastian Wilson, the Community Relations Program Manager at ARC, it will be routed for approval. Because of the complex nature of the partnership there are five levels of sequential approval, we appreciate your patience during this process. Once your application is approved and background check is cleared you will receive official notice that you have been accepted as an Advisory Council Member.

We are extremely grateful that you are taking this step to be involved in your community and look forward to supporting your success in this important and valuable volunteer position.

If you need assistance or have questions at any time during the application process, please do not hesitate to contact us directly.
