

ARC in Action

Fund the Fun 2023

Registration has officially opened for our 5th Annual Fund the Fun breakfast on Thursday, April 20th. Please join us for this inspiring community event. Since 2019, Fund the Fun has raised over $125,000 to support youth sports and recreation scholarships.

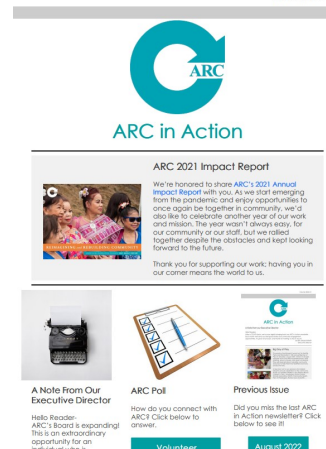

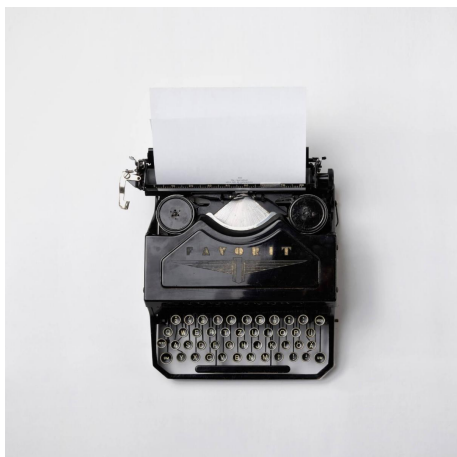

We'll keep you posted on details; so be on the lookout! If you or your company are interested in learning about event sponsorship, contact Sonia.Doughty@seattle.gov or 206-465-2580. Past sponsors include Seattle Parks & Recreation, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, Harborstone Credit Union, and Pacifica Law Group, just to name a few.

See you on April 20th!

The ARC Team

Click here to register for Fund the Fun 2023

A Note From Our Executive Director

Hello Readers-

We're excited to announce this year's Fund the Fun keynote speaker is Tom Farrey, founder and leader of the Aspen Institute's Sports & Society Program.

Tom's speech is sure to impress as he knows all about youth sports and recreation in our region. He and his team published the highly regarded Seattle-King County State of Play Report in 2019, which sparked the creation of the King County Play Equity Coalition to serve our region.

Be sure to register for the event and I look forward to seeing you on April 20th!

Jackie Jainga Hyllseth
Executive Director

ARC Poll

Fund the Fun is free to attend every year, and we're wondering...

Have you attended our Fund the Fun Breakfast before?

Yes, and it was great

No... but I should try and make it this year!

Previous Issue

Did you miss the last ARC in Action newsletter? Click the button below to see it!

ARC in Action

